CSKLS Mission Statement

CSKLS is an international community of Christian scholars and professionals committed to excellence in kinesiology, leisure, and sport through faith-integration, professional development, mentoring, and fellowship.

The Four Pillars of CSKLS

Faith integration Mentoring
Professional development Fellowship

Welcome and Information

Welcome Congress Attendees!

The Board of Directors for the Christian Society for Kinesiology, Leisure, and Sport Studies (CSKLS) warmly welcomes you to the 30th annual conference in conjunction with the 2nd Global Congress on Sport and Christianity at the location where it all began: Calvin University. Special thanks to Drs. Brian Bolt and Chad Carlson, without whom the 2nd Global Congress would not have happened. The collective work of the Congress team has been vital to the creation of an outstanding program, and CSKLS is proud to be a small part of this excellent endeavor. For 30 years CSKLS has annually offered an outstanding array of keynote speakers, professional development workshops, uplifting worship experiences, and professional presentations given by its membership and friends, and we are certain that the Congress's lineup will inspire, challenge, and reinvigorate you in your walk with Christ.

To the Congress attendees who are not familiar with CSKLS, we warmly welcome you and invite you to immerse yourself in the splendor of the fellowship during the Congress. There will be plenty of opportunities for networking and sharing during our time at Calvin. Consider joining CSKLS in our walk together.

If we may be of assistance to you, please feel free to find us during the Congress.

Sincerely,

CSKLS Board of Directors

First Call for Presentations
2020 Annual Conference
June 8-10, 2020
Lipscomb University in Nashville, Tennessee

Please submit your proposal via e-mail to Andrew Meyer at Andrew.Meyer@Baylor.edu

Initial deadline for professional proposals: January 15, 2020

Initial deadline for student proposals: February 15, 2020

Purpose of the Annual Conference

The purpose of the annual CSKLS conference is to share current research and pedagogical ideas in kinesiology and leisure studies, provide fellowship opportunities to connect with other believers, and foster professional collaborative opportunities, all with an emphasis in faith integration.

Our Mission

Society members seek to:

- Influence and new secular culture by integrating their Christian faith with their disciplines in research, publications, public presentations, and professional interactions.
- Provide opportunities for personal and professional growth within a Christian context.
- Promote research and information that will contribute to the health and well-being of all people, image bearers of their Creator God by supporting and encouraging Christian professionals in the disciplines of kinesiology and leisure studies

Conference Objectives

The purpose of the annual CSKLS conference is to:

1. Develop and contribute faith-integrated scholarly work to those in higher education and the Church in our related disciplines.
2. Strengthen Christian professional relationships and foster collaborative scholarly efforts.
3. Provide quality presentations to meet professional development needs.
4. Share faith-integration pedagogical approaches.

Presentation Proposals

I. Presentation Tracks

The conference is organized into the three primary fields represented by CSKLS and a student track. All entail scholarly works that are distinctively Christian in their approach to issues of faith and learning. Tracks 1, 2, 3 are 30-45-minute sessions; Track 4 is a 20-minute session.

TRACK 1 -- Kinesiology (includes exercise physiology, physical education, movement science, health and wellness, and sport performance)

TRACK 2 -- Leisure Studies (includes community recreation, therapeutic recreation, outdoor recreation, parks, and tourism)

TRACK 3 -- Sport Studies (including dance, sport management, sport psychology, and social sport studies)

TRACK 4—Student Track (includes kinesiology, leisure, and sport studies topics)

II. Proposals must contain the following elements:

1. Title of presentation
2. Presenter(s) information (name, title, institution, address, email, phone)
3. Abstract (not to exceed 300 words)
4. Christian Perspective* (not to exceed 100 words; explains how the Christian worldview and faith integration inform the presentation)
5. Learning Outcomes (3 succinctly written)

Empirical presentations are highly encouraged. If your presentation is strictly empirical please complete proposal elements 1, 2, 3, & 5.*

III. Submission of Proposals

All proposals must be completed using the form found on the cskls.org website and submitted via email to Andrew_Meyer@Baylor.edu.

IV. Acceptance of Presentations

Only complete proposals will be eligible to be reviewed by the Program Committee through a blind, rolling review. Notification of acceptance or rejection will be made via email by no later than January 31, 2020. Selections will be made according to:

1. Appropriateness of content for the desired session.
2. Demonstrated organization of material and learning outcomes.

For full consideration, professional proposals must be submitted by December 15, 2019, via e-mail. Student proposals must be submitted by February 15, 2020. Professional proposals submitted after December 15, 2019, will only be considered for presentation if there is still space available in the program.

Presenters must register for the conference. Conference registration information with further information is available at <http://www.cskls.org>. Click on conference. We encourage all presenters to become members of CSKLS also.

About the 2020 Conference Site

Lipscomb University (www.lipscomb.edu) is pleased to be host the 31st annual CSKLS Conference June 8-10, 2020. In addition to the peer-reviewed presentations, we are planning several outstanding keynote sessions highlighting topics that are of special interest to all conferees and an opportunity to spend time in one of America's premier cities for entertainment, food, music, and art, Nashville, Tennessee. Presentations and topics will be announced as the final program takes shape in late March of 2020.

Lipscomb was founded in Nashville in 1891 by two individuals (David Lipscomb & James A. Harding) who believed that a truly educated individual of their time could not be so without attention given to spiritual growth as well as academics. The university is still a place of academic rigor and spiritual growth with more than 4,600 students enrolled at the university and another 1200 at the K-12 Academy. Students choose from eight bachelor's degrees in 78 majors or 145 areas of undergraduate study, several pre-professional programs, and an accelerated evening and online adult degree program for those who wish to complete their undergraduate degrees. Lipscomb also offers 25 master's degrees, four education specialist degrees and three doctorate degrees in 58 fields of study.

Situated just south of downtown Nashville in a wooded suburb with easy access to interstates, shopping, food, and, of course, music, Lipscomb offers an idyllic location for the 2020 conference. Music City, USA awaits! Plan on bringing your family to enjoy this Southern destination. Travelers to the area can easily fly into Nashville International Airport (BNA). Please let us know if you have questions about the conference or travel to the Nashville area. Use the "Contact Us" button on the cskls.org website or send an email to matthew.ruiz@lipscomb.edu or david.bender@lipscomb.edu.
